CAPE CHARLES HIGH SCHOOL

Let others sing of college days
Their Alma Mater true.
But when we raise our voices loud
T'is Cape Charles High for you.
We'll ne'er forget those days gone by,
Those glorious days of old,
When oft we sang the praises true
Of our maroon and gold.

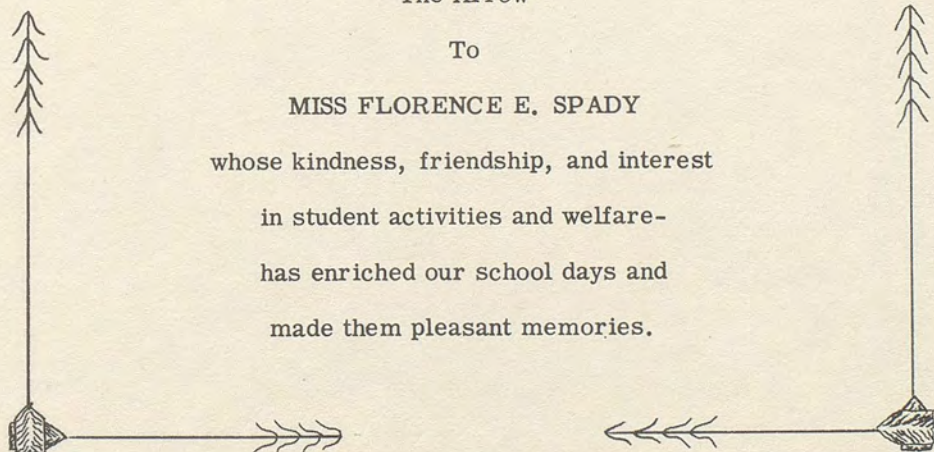

And when at last we leave behind
Thy shelt'ring portals wide.
Thy mem'ries still we'll cherish long
Whate'er may us betide.
And when we congregate again
With tuneful voice and strong.
With joyful hearts once more we'll sing
That same old glorious song.

A GLANCE AT THE PAST-----

Early one morning in 1940, Miss Scott was greeted by twenty-one bashful and scared little boys and girls. Many changes have taken place in the past eleven years. We have lost some of our members and added new ones.

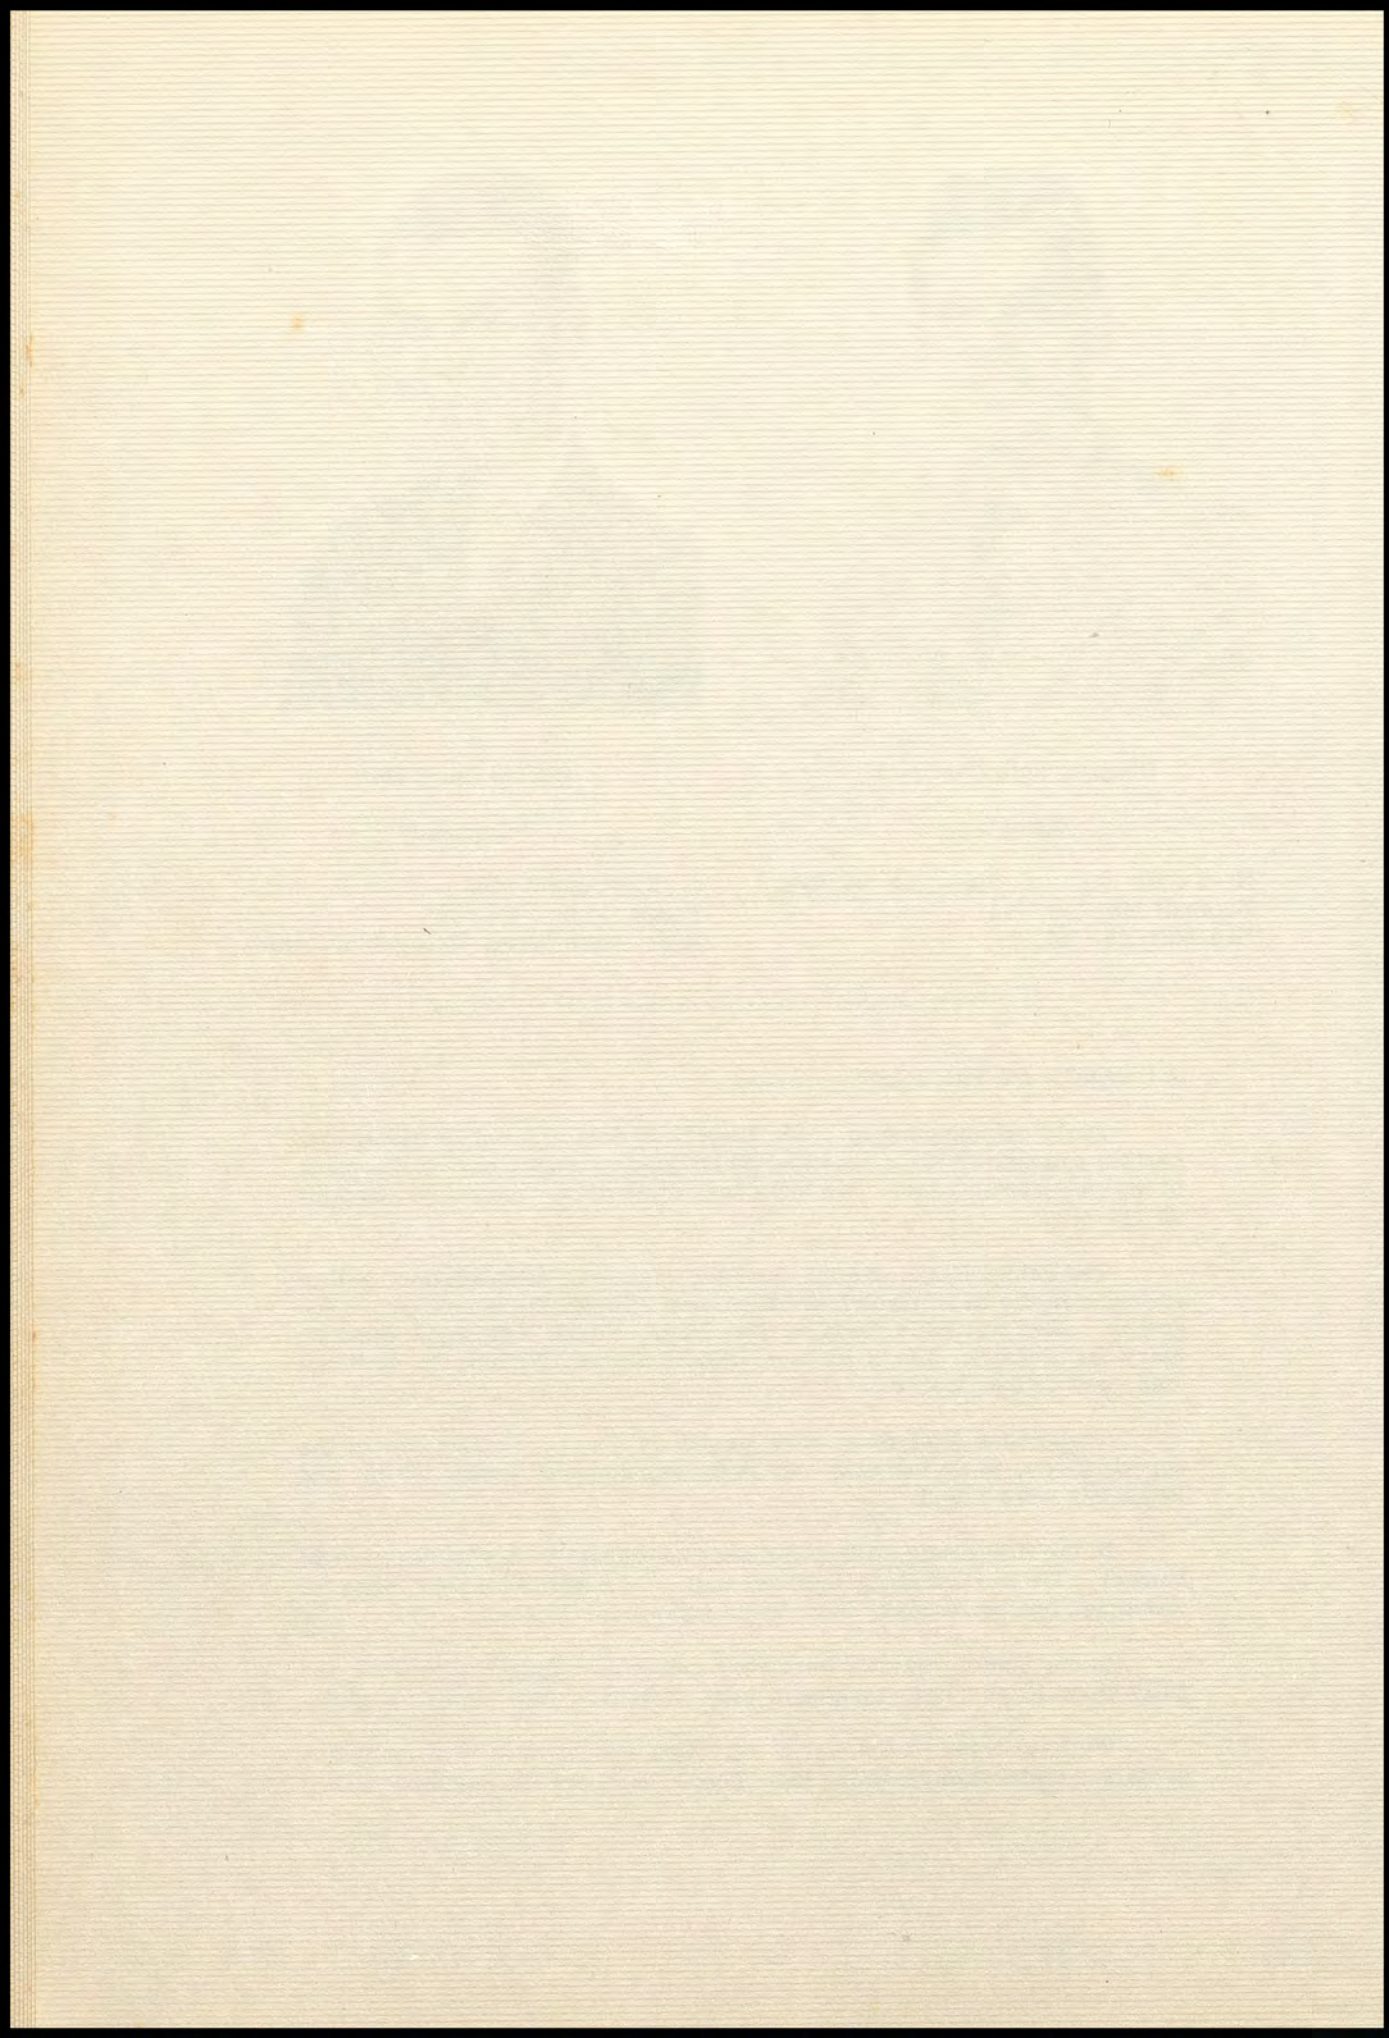

The Senior Class of 1951 numbers eighteen, although only half of us began in the first grade and have come through the eleven years together. They are Billy Bowden, Kay Mills, Nancy Nye, Joan Bennett, Mary C. Bundick, Lloyd Kellam, Albert Rayne, William T. Nottingham, and Clifton Moore.

These nine beginners were joined by Betty Nottingham in the second grade, while the next year in the third grade, Jackie White, and Regis Etz were added.

In the fifth grade, Harry Kellam and Gerald Parks increased our number. We worked along together until our Sophomore year when we welcomed two more boys: Jack Ward and Jimmy McCabe.

In our Senior year we were very glad to add Douglas Charnock and Billy Shaw to our list, making a total of twelve boys and six girls.

We have come to the end of our High School days with many regrets and memories realizing that "School days are the happiest days."

WHAT? LAST WILL and TESTAMENT
WHO? SENIORS
WHEN? JUNE 6, 1951
WHERE? CAPE CHARLES HIGH SCHOOL

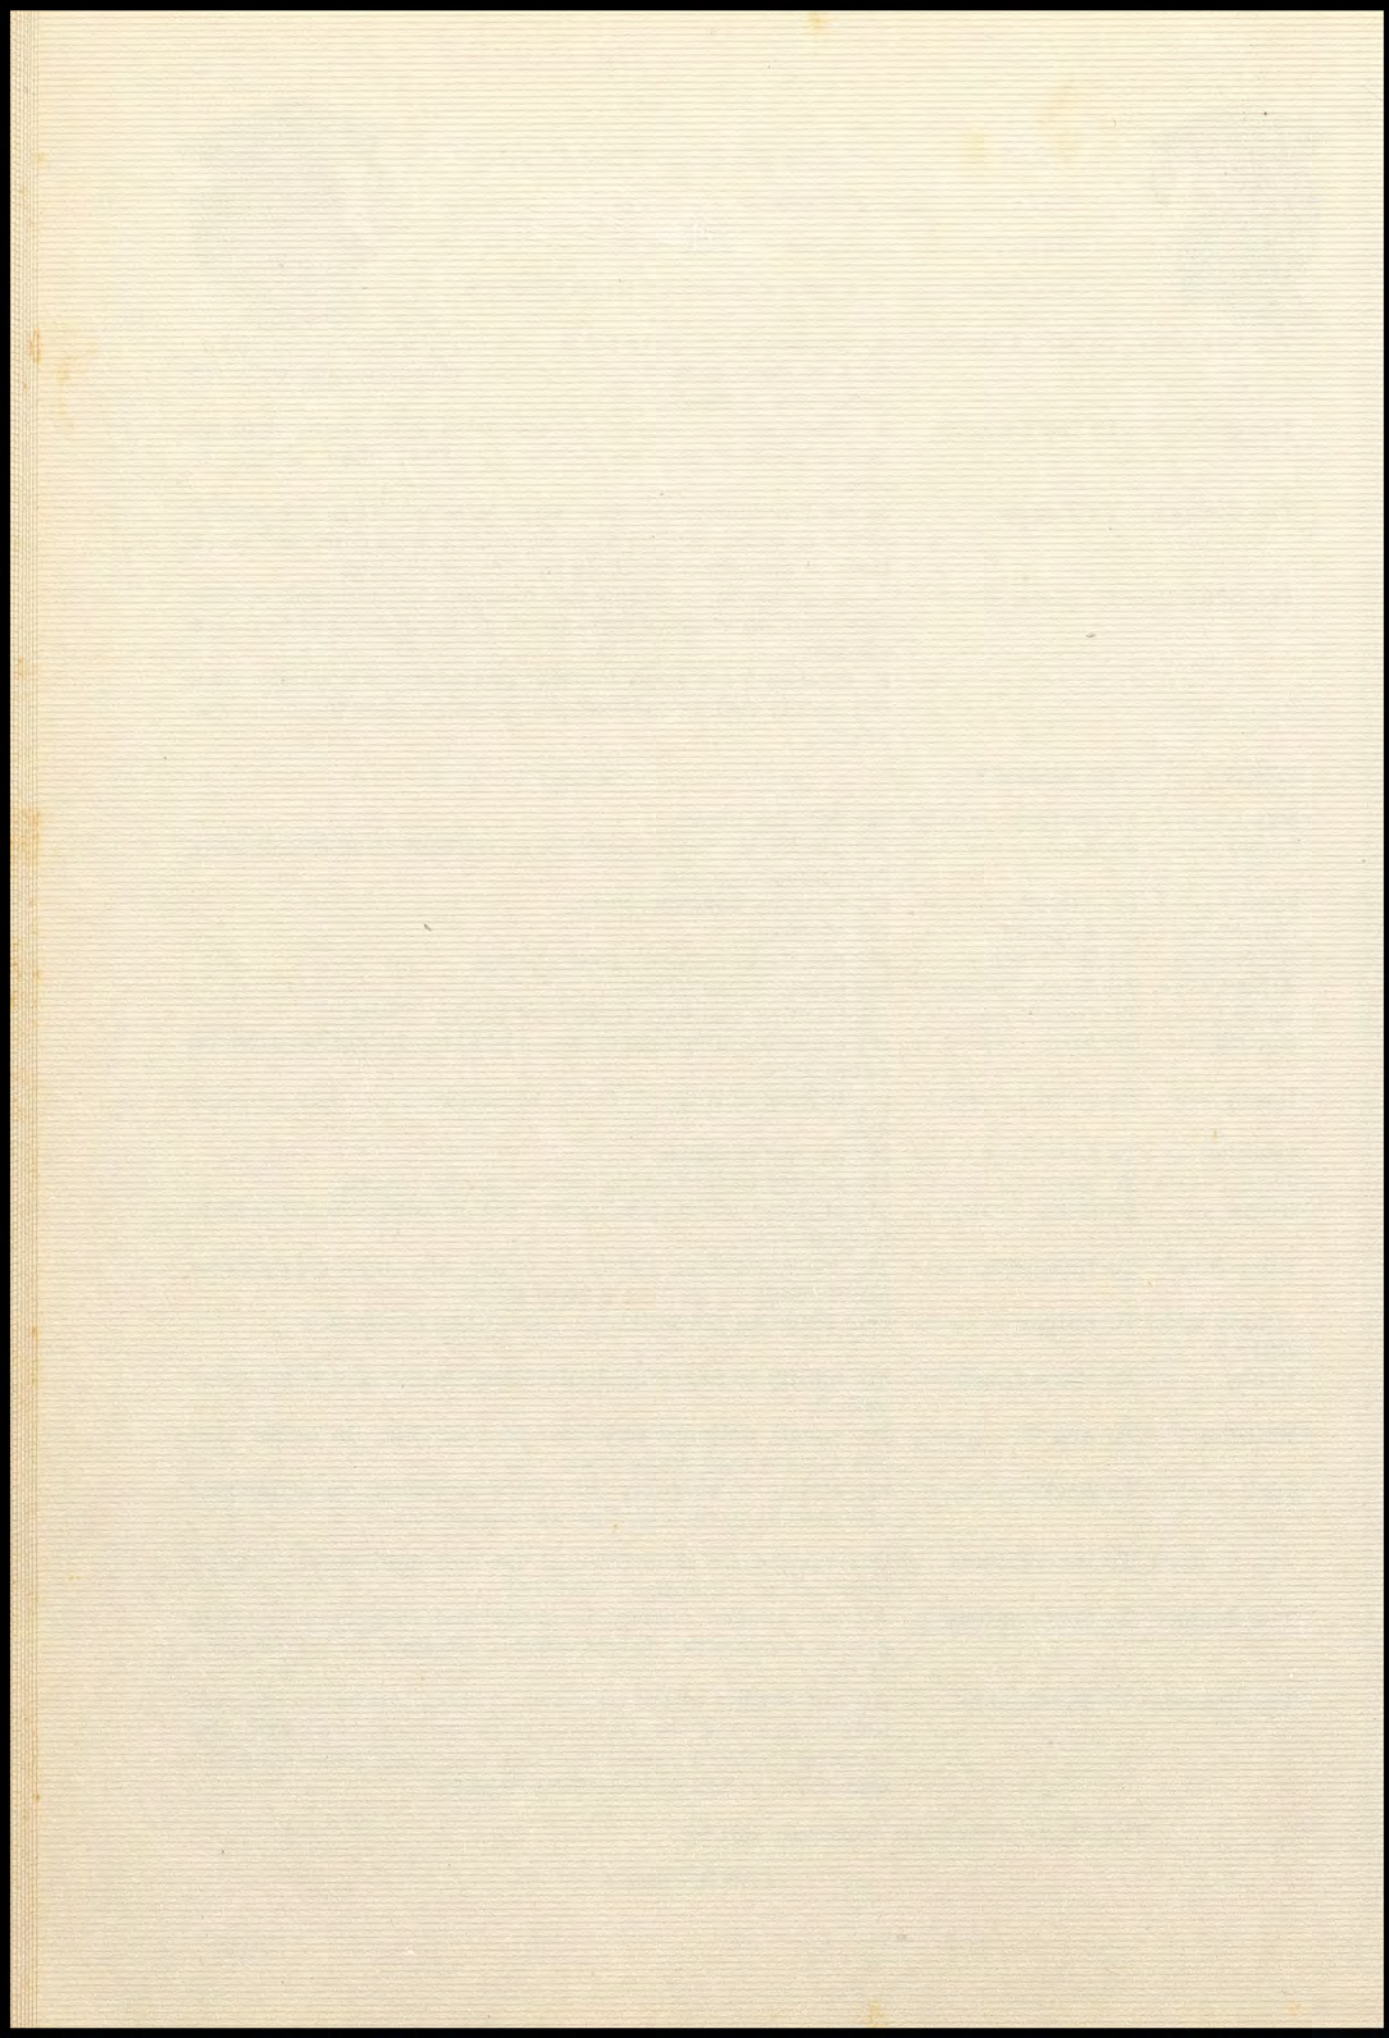

- The Seniors--To Mr. Letson: 1. Secretary to attend to his many appointments.
2. A student body who is willing to cooperate with the decisions of the faculty.
- The Seniors--To the Faculty: 1. The hope for more students with less sense than we had so as they may be able to exhibit their ability to teach.
- The Seniors--To James: More considerate student body to help keep the school clean in order that he may have less work to do and more time to entertain students by playing the piano.
- The Seniors--To Alma Mater: 1. A cafeteria in which the students might eat so that they may have more time to study for their afternoon classes.
2. Wishes for a good football team so as not to break the undefeated record which we were able to make this year.

WHO?	TO WHOM?	WHAT?
Kay -----	To Shirley -----	My dancing shoes.
Lloyd ----	To Amos -----	My ability to "Ham-bone" in order that he may fascinate Northampton girls.

Albert -----	To Alma -----	My talent as an artist.
Mary C. --	To Jessie -----	My flaming red hair to attract flocks of boys.
Gerald ---	To Alice -----	My cheerful disposition and ability to smile even on rainy days.
Harry ----	To Francis -----	My talking ability, in order to surprise his date by talking.
Douglas ---	To David -----	My ability to blush.
Jackie ----	To Betty B. -----	My ability to write long letters to far places.
Regis ----	To Duke -----	My athletic ability, in order that he may attract female football fans.
Billy B. --	To Elizabeth ----	My mathematical mind, in order she may surprise Miss Spady by getting a good grade.
Jimmy and -	To Esther -----	Our pleasing personality. (As if she needs it.)
Billy S.
Nancy ----	To Mary Linda ---	My ability to carry on foolishness in class and get away with it.
William T. -	To Ann W. -----	My small delicate physique as a dream, in order that her dream may come true.
Jack -----	To Becky -----	My ability to keep my nose in everything, in order that she may keep up with the current events.
The Seniors-	To the Juniors:	Our many good times full of fun and enjoyment, while together as "Dignified Seniors".
The Seniors-	To Sophomores:	All our excess energy in order that they may use it to give a successful Junior-Senior Banquet to the Seniors of '52.
The Seniors-	To Freshmen:	All our brains which we have failed to use in the past four years and the knowledge of our mistakes. By keeping these in mind, we hope they may not take more than eight years in becoming Seniors.

The Sophomore Class

Here is the line-up of the Sophomore Class of today,
Each a character in his own quaint way.

Modest JIM MOORE, the co-captain of our football team,
Sets a good example with his smiling face and friendly beam.

The nod of her head and the twist of her skirt,
Gives to JUDY the name of a flirt.

JIMMY BRADFORD, a "A" student it is said,
But when it comes to praise, his face is always red.

Leave it to AUDREY to work like a bee,
In spite of the fact she will disagree.

DICKY, our football hero, handsome and tall,
Is always ready when Coach Dan gives the call.

CHARLOTTE, who is busy with her books all day,
Gives very little time to foolishness and play.

Now there's CHILCOTE, if we recall,
Is always talking in study hall.

JANICE, who is president of our class,
Is wise enough not to let opportunities pass.

BILLY is the tallest boy in school, we know,
But the question is - how tall can a person grow?

AUDREY FOSTER with her foolishness and play,
Makes our days happy, bright, and gay.

JACKIE POWELL, a true baseball fan,
Can tell the names of the players as no one else can.

The blowing of a horn and the speeding of a car,
Warns us that JIMMIE HARRISON is not distant far.

For BETTY, what shall it be,
There's no one quite as cheerful as she.

JIMMIE LUTSINGER, known by all,
Is always cutting capers in study hall.

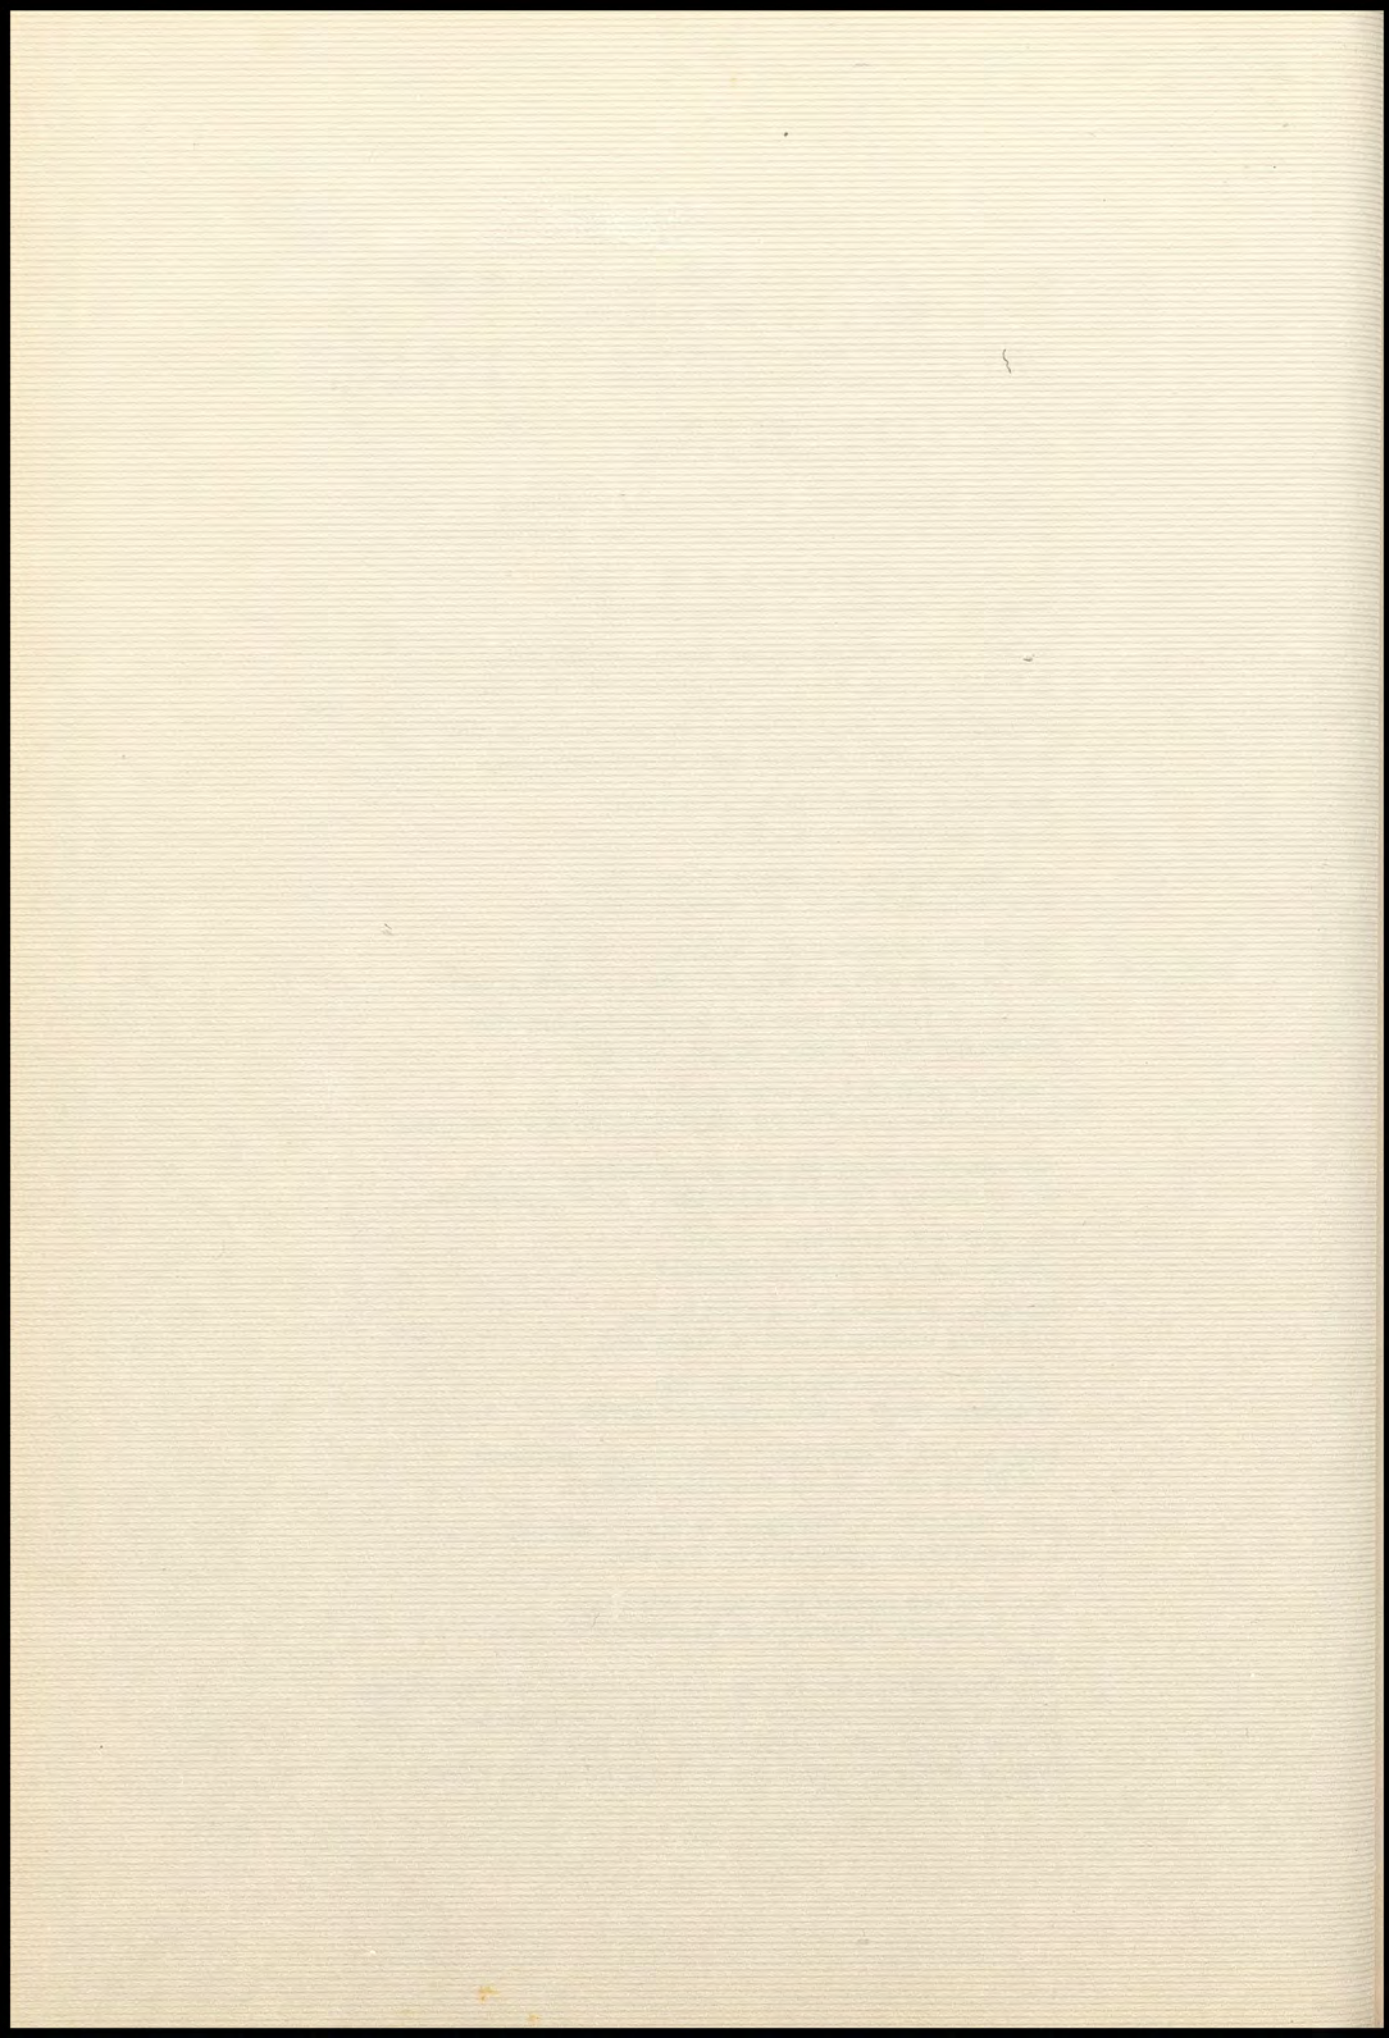

NANCY, a bit on the chubby side,
Is always ready in a certain car to ride.

May we say, CHARLES is one of our smartest,
But never gets "A" by study the hardest.

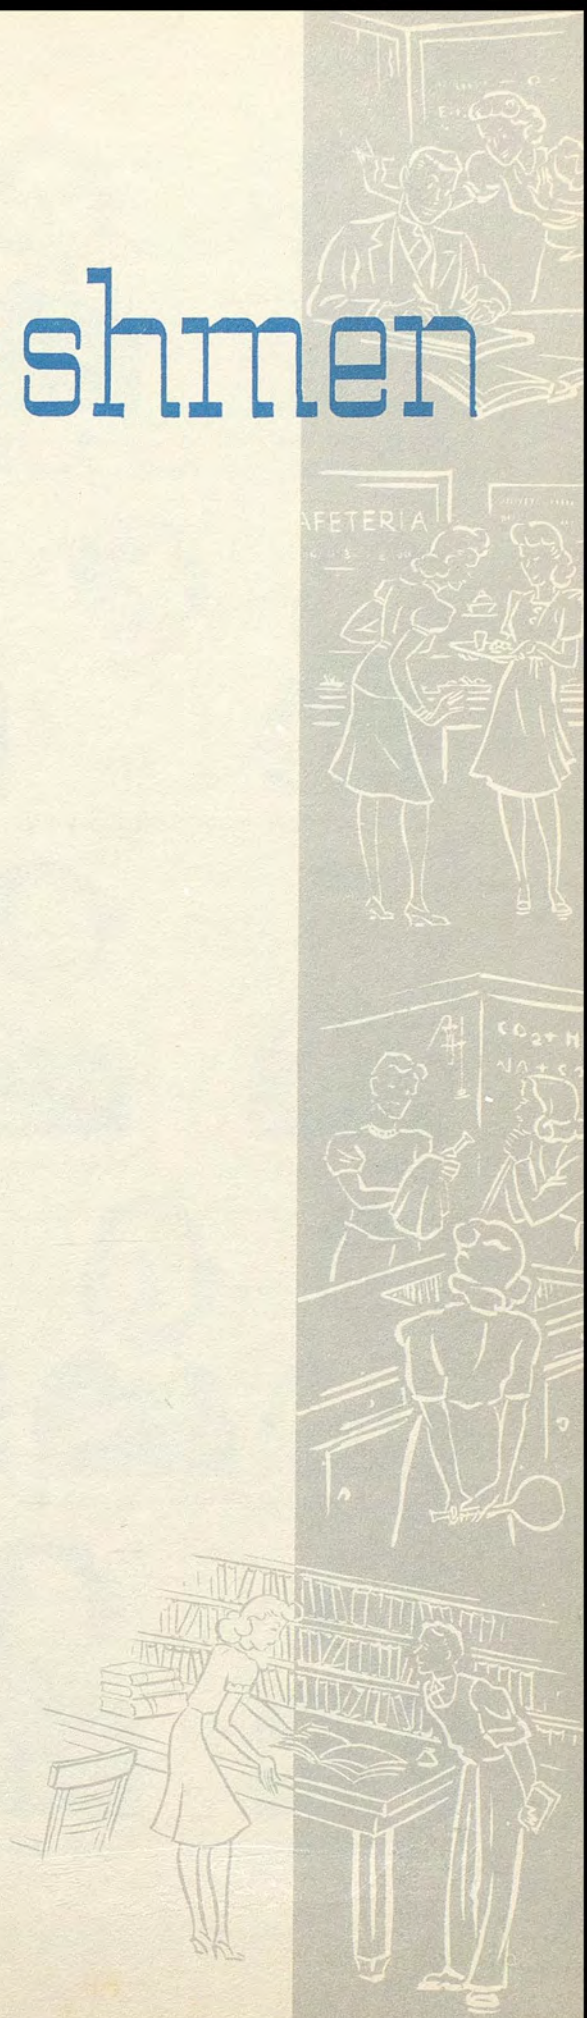

MR. RACEY, our teacher, is merry and gay,
If we all know our Biology every day.

Now that you have a line-up of our class,
Our teachers' desires may we always surpass.
And-

Two years hence from Cape Charles High we will depart,
Each of us beginning our lives with a new start.
Giving up the old, searching for the bright,
Hoping the future holds for us everything just right.

Through 1950-51 the Tri-Hi-Y has served the school by conducting assembly programs, by having a snack table at the football games, by sending Christmas baskets and by selling pencils. Kay Mills, Ann Webster, Esther Stevenson, and Betty Nottingham, who were delegates to Blue Ridge in August, returned with many new ideas and projects for making the club more worthwhile. In October the workshop held at Accomac High School was well attended by members of the organization and the club profited by this pre-planning. On November 4th and 5th the club was host to the District 5 Conference which had as its theme, "To Create, Maintain, and Extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character." At this conference Esther Stevenson was elected President of District 5 for the year 1951 and Ann Spady was appointed Chaplain of the House of Delegates for the Model General Assembly held at Richmond in April. Other delegates attending the assembly were Kay Mills, Betty Nottingham, Esther Stevenson, and Mary Linda Fitchett.

Under the direction of Mr. Racey, the Hi-Y has done many things. The annual Conference was held at Cape Charles, and the club worked very hard toward this. With the help of the Tri-Hi-Y, a successful conference was held.

From our number, Jimmy McCabe was elected Clerk of the House for the Model General Assembly. Also, Amos Dickinson is a candidate for Governor of Virginia in 1952.

Wrestling and boxing matches were presented to the school, which proved to be very successful. Also the Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y sold drinks and sandwiches at the football games last fall. Many of the boys delivered suppers for the Community League Supper in January.

In all, the Cape Charles Hi-Y Club has enjoyed a very successful year. Many thanks to Mr. Racey for his help and cooperation.
